

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 18

Tuesday, February 14, 2012

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 3:00 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Jack Romberg of Temple Israel of Tallahassee, upon invitation of Rep. Rehwinkel Vasilinda:

This week's biblical reading is the Torah portion for Jewish congregations, not just here in Florida, but all over the world—comes from the book of Exodus. And I quote from the beginning of Chapter 23: you must not carry false rumors, you shall not join hands with the guilty to act as a malicious witness. You shall neither side with the mighty to do wrong, you shall not give perverse testimony in a dispute so as to pervert it in favor of the mighty, nor shall you show deference to a poor man in his dispute. The intent of these laws is clear. In all that we do, be it judicial, legislative, or executive. Our obligation is to establish a fair system that neither plays off of the power of the privilege or off of the empathy for the poor. Justice is to be blind.

In light of this biblical injunction, I offer this prayer: O God, the Source of All Being, help those whom we have entrusted with the common good to do a good that serves us all. We pray that You endow those in these chambers with the wisdom to discern what is right, the patience to hear all perspectives, and the ability to put aside bias for the common good. We ask this with deep appreciation for everyone in this Chamber as they have chosen a path of community service to the great state of Florida. We know that they are sacrificing time with family and their home communities, and we express our gratitude to You for their service, and pray that You grant everyone health as well as safe travels to and from Tallahassee. May the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight, O God—our rock and our redeemer. Amen.
